

Shawn Richgels Workshops Saturday March 21st and Sunday March 22nd 2020

Hosted by Forest City Dog Training Club

Shawna started taking agility classes with their Boxer, Lexie in order to find something active to do together. Loving the "Ah-ha" moments she was having and seeing those in her Boxer, Shawna began competing and earned Top Awards with the American Boxer Club. She and her husband Pat, fostered Boxer's with Green Acres Boxer Rescue where she served on the Board. Shawna is a multi-finalist at AKC Nationals, and won at Cynosports World games in multiple events. She is thrilled to be chosen to help coach the EO Team practice for 2019 & 2020. In addition Shawna spends time coaching the juniors as much as possible to build enthusiasm for the sport with younger generations. Her daughter was on the 2018 & 2019 EO Junior Team and is planning to try out for the 2020 Team.

Shawna is known for her serious training eye, and fabulous sense of humor. Her students range from those on World Teams to those that aspire to build the BEST possible relationship with their dogs. Agility & teaching others became a passion, and in 2014 she left her job of 24 years and opened Canine Sports Zone.

Shawna and Pat have and their children Finley & Dane, share their home with 3 border collies, 1 agility trained cat, 1 rabbit, and a pony.

Saturday Morning 8:00 am to 11:30 am Beginner dogs working in small spaces

Saturday Afternoon 12:30 pm to 4:00pm Obstacle discrimination's! Have you taught your dog effective discrimination's? Are you confident your dog will take the correct one on course? Assist your dog in knowing which obstacle to take when their line presents two or more obstacles at speed! Most common discrimination's are closely positioned tunnel/contacts, but could also be jumps where a change in the dogs line is needed. Learn how to teach effective discrimination's at a distance to your dog, while not giving up precious course time. Come join the fun, and make discrimination's your friend!
